

Temporary Rent Assistance Benefit

The Temporary Rent Assistance Benefit is a short-term subsidy for households experiencing a temporary loss of income due to work shortages, layoffs, or other temporary circumstances.

Details

- Subsidy is provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Your application will be processed in the order it was received
- The benefit is assigned based on number of bedrooms in the home and will be reduced in the second year (see Table 2)
- After two years, TRAB benefits end. If you still need assistance, you can re-apply

Eligibility

Households are eligible if they:

- Are a Canadian citizen, permanent resident (except for those who are under private sponsorship arrangement), convention refugee, or an individual who has applied for refugee or immigration status and private sponsorship has broken down
- Currently hold a lease agreement in the catchment area you are applying to
- Are in core housing need (rent costs more than 30% of the household's total income on rent)
- Have an income that is less than the local income threshold (see below table)
- Have a total asset value of $25,000 or less
- Are employed or have been employed in the last 24 months
- Are not receiving social assistance, including:
 - Alberta Works
 - Learner Income Support
 - Assured Income for the Severely Handicapped (AISH)
 - Alberta Seniors Benefit or Canada Pension Plan
 - Guaranteed Income Supplement or Old Age Security
 - Rent Assistance Benefit (RAB)
 - Gender Based Violence Benefit (GBV)
 - Ukrainian Evacuee Emergency Financial Support & Benefits Program
- Individuals receiving Employment Insurance (EI) are eligible
