

Application – Rent Assistance Benefit (RAB)

What is the RAB Program and how can it help me and/or my family?

- The Rent Assistance Benefit is designed for households in core housing need who have low incomes and ongoing need. Recipient households live in rental housing located in Strathcona County, Fort Saskatchewan, or Beaver County, and receive a monthly benefit amount to help make their rent more affordable.

What does it mean to have a Core Housing Need?

- A household is in core housing need if:
  - Suitable accommodation costs more than 30% of the household's total income on rent, and
  - It has a total annual income below the income threshold for a given municipality

What is considered a household?

- We define a household to include the following:
  - The spouse, common-law, or adult interdependent partner*
  - Dependent(s) – A dependent includes a member of the household who is not self-supporting. A dependent is an individual under 25 years of age and related by blood, marriage, or adoption to another member of the household, or by virtue of an adult interdependent relationship*
  - Adults co-applying for housing who are none of the above (e.g. roommates)*

What is considered an asset and how does this impact my eligibility?

- A household cannot hold over $25,000 in eligible assets as defined by the Social Housing Accommodation Regulation. One personal, non-recreational vehicle is exempt from the asset limit. A second vehicle would not be exempt unless it is used for work purposes. For more information, check out page 4 of this application.
